

Judges,

June 8, 2023

Below is the NAWGJWA Committee budget approved education reimbursement guidelines.

Here are just a few examples of the many educational tools that you may use your education funds for:

Travel expenses to live approved clinics (mileage, flights, meals, hotel)

Educational tools found on the NAWGJ National website.

Educational tools found on the USAG National website.

Uniform

Clinics both in person and virtual

To access any of the educational monies below, from a live or virtual event, judges must be registered and provide proof of attendance. Judges may receive reimbursement from ONLY 1 of the following educational opportunities. Judges will be reimbursed upon submitting receipts and a request for reimbursement form to the SJD no later than September 30, 2023.

Educational Expense Allotment

If you are attending:

- 1. NAWGJ Symposium: each judge may request reimbursement up to but not to exceed $1200.00.

2. USAG National Congress: each judge may request reimbursement up to but not to exceed $400.00.

3. OTHER: Educational funds for judges not attending number 1 or 2 above, each judge may submit receipts and request reimbursement for up to but not to exceed $200.00.

As a reminder the USAGWA state clinic is free to all judges this year.

2023 – 2024 NAWGJ Dues paid by NAWGJWA.

Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you,

Patty Ames

NAWGJWA SJD